

KAUFMAN SEARCH GROUP

Marketplace Update

As we approach the close of the third quarter of 2026, we're taking a moment to reflect on a strong and productive year so far for Kaufman Search Group. Over the past months, we've had the opportunity to partner with excellent organizations on critical hires, helping them strengthen key functions and add leaders who can make a meaningful, long-term impact.

Each completed search is a reflection of the relationships we've built, the trust our clients place in us, and our continued commitment to finding the right fit for both organizations and professionals. As we head into the final quarter of the year, we're proud to share a few of the searches we've recently completed.
